

FAQs

Q: Why are you making this film?

A: For much of our society, there is a vast disconnect between what we eat and the source of that food. THE LAST PIG will help repair that disconnect and inspire compassion for ALL living beings. Through the intimacy of its story, this unique film has the power to reach the uninitiated: an audience that has not yet contemplated these critical issues.

Q: Is the film complete?

A: The film will be complete in Spring 2017

Q: When will I get to see the film?

A: We plan to complete editing the film in February of 2017. We will then submit the film to festivals and begin organizing screenings. Once we have secured a distribution agreement, the film will be available for purchase (both DVD and Digital Download).

Q: How can we help you complete this film?

A: You can join us in completing THE LAST PIG by making a contribution towards our finishing funds and/or by spreading the word about the film. More about this below! Both are invaluable.

Q: How will I get to see the film?

A: Once the film is complete, on our website, you will be able to stream it through our website or purchase DVDs. The film will also be shown at film festivals, community screenings and schools. We are also looking into television broadcast.

Q: Can I organize a screening of the film?

A: Yes, once the film is complete, we'd be happy to help organize a screening. We will post information on our website, so please check back!

Q: How can I follow THE LAST PIG's progress?

A: Start by going to www.thelastpig.com! From there you can sign up for our newsletter and connect to our social media platforms (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram)

Q: When is THE LAST PIG going to be available outside the US?

A: As soon as the film is complete we will be working to make the film available to as many audiences as possible worldwide. If you can help bring THE LAST PIG to your country, please let us know.

Q: What languages will THE LAST PIG be translated into?

A: As many as possible.

Q: Is the film appropriate for children?

A: Parts of the film will contain graphic content that would not be appropriate for young children or the very sensitive. There will be a special version of the film for younger audiences.

Q: How can I help promote THE LAST PIG and its message?

A: There are lots of ways to do this! You can...

- Donate to the film to help us with finishing and distribution costs.
- Spread the word! Share the clips and images from our website, Facebook and Twitter about the film on social media.
- Adopt and promote a sustainable, plant-based vegan lifestyle.

- Write environmental organizations and request that they address the true impacts of animal agriculture and that they provide real solutions to the problems.
- Write articles, blogs, posts, tweets, podcasts, or letters to the editor of publications, about the serious impact of animal agriculture on both sentient beings and our planet.
- If you believe in governmental change, you can write your representatives and demand that they address the environmental impacts of animal agriculture.

Once the film is complete, you can...

- Search for and request THE LAT PIG on platforms such as NETFLIX, iTunes, HULU. (This increases the likelihood of us ending up on these sites)
- Organize or help promote a local screening for your community.
- Buy and share DVDs with your friends and community once it is available.
