THE SCREENING

The day is here! During the screening, please take photos!

APPLY FOR A VEGFUND GRANT

VegFund has generously partnered with THE LAST PIG to cover licensing fees and other screening-related costs. You can apply for a grant at: vegfund.org/screenings-intro.html. You can also pay the film directly by contacting us at thelastpigfilm@gmail.com.

PREP FOR & PROMOTE THE SCREENING

We will email a license for you to sign and return to us & then mail you a hardcopy of the film. (Please test this in your venue in advance of your screening!) To help support your screening, we will email you posters and fliers you can print. Make sure to promote locally! We will also list your screening on our website and Facebook page.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

HOW MUCH IS THE LICENSING FEE?

One licensing fee costs $250 USD. THE LAST PIG offers discounted rates for multiple screenings.

ARE THERE SUBTITLES AVAILABLE?

The film has been translated into multiple languages. If your language is not yet available, we will provide you with a script for you to translate yourself. Email us for more info!

CAN I CHARGE ADMISSION OR DONATE PROCEEDS?

THE LAST PIG leaves this decision to each organizer and venue based on their particular needs and goals. We encourage people to use the film for good!

CAN YOU COME FOR A POST-SCREENING Q&A?

Depending on scheduling, a member of THE LAST PIG team may be available for an in-person or Skype Q&A. As we are a small team with a small budget, a standard speaker's fee (and if applicable, travel expenses) are required. Email us to discuss!

HOW LONG IS FILM?

THE LAST PIG is 54 minutes long, which is the perfect length for a post-screening panel! The DVD includes 5 minutes of bonus material and you are welcome to screen this as well.
